New Dark Room For Photo Club

The Photography Club, recently organized at PCHS, is hoping to move into permanent quarters soon. according to announcement made by Mr. Ford Dunn, sponsor. A dark room is being constructed for the Photography Club and the Pyramid staff in the unused room across from the woodworking shop in the annex. The storeroom for the concession stand had served as temporary quarters but with the opening of basketball season had to be relinquished.

Measurements show that the new dark room is 12 feet by 22 feet. Cabinets will extend for 22 feet on the north side. A sink, printing, and developing mateials will be secured and put in as soon as possible.

"We hope it will be ready soon," stated Mr. Dunn.

SELL TWO LESS TICKETS

By selling 122 tickets the Freshman class won the Christmas pageant held December 17.

The Senior class was right behind with 120, losing by only two tickets. The Junior class sold 56 and the Sophomore class sold 47.

As a reward the Freshman class will be shown a special movie.

How Films Are Made Is English 2 Project

How can movies talk? How are colored pictures made? How are Mickey Mouse pictures made? What about movies of the future? These are some of the questions that Mrs. Runion's English 2 class will be able to answer after completing a project in the making of motion pictures.

After getting the preliminary information from the text Flying the Printways by Havions the class will be divided into committees. Following a class discussion, they will make

EDITOR'S NOTE

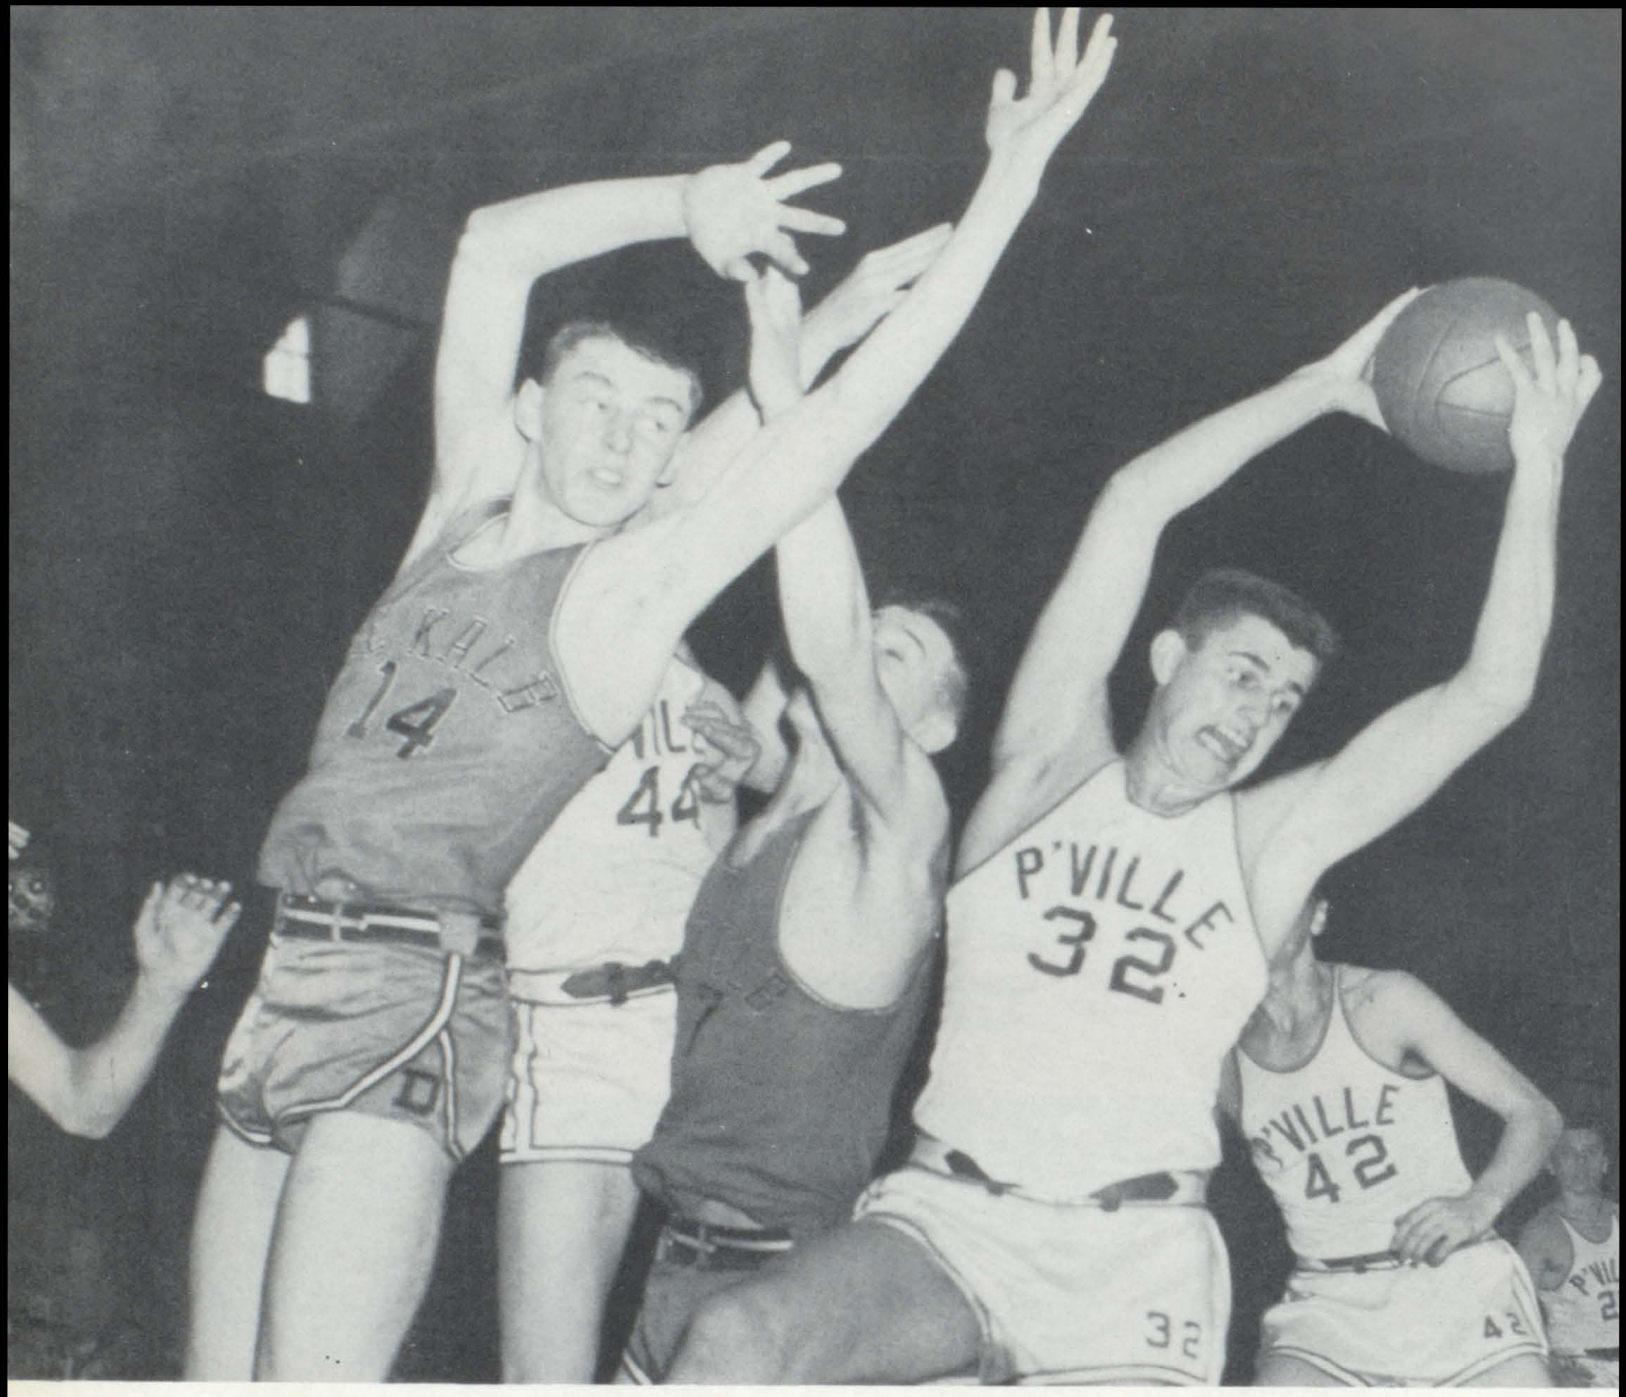

The editor of your yearbook wishes to acknowledge the help of Mrs. Helen Kuykendall in the preparation of the copy selection of the 1954 yearbook; to thank Mr. Karl Doerr, photographer; for his time and for the patience he displayed in preparation of the pictures; and to express appreciation for the splendid cooperation of the annual staff members. In an especial way the editor and the staff wish to say, "Thank You," to Mr. Ford Dunn for his supervision without which the 1954 annual could not be the publication that it is.
